

English

- Phonics: Learning new sounds and multi-syllabic words and applying these to reading. Daily reading of phonics books.
- Texts: Sulwe, Ollie and the wind and pigs might fly.
- Reading: Learning new vocabulary linked to our up, up and away topic, reading wishing tales, exploring sentence structure in stories, understanding labels and writing explanations of flying machines.
- Writing: Writing a narrative story using a range of sentence types and factual sentences.

Maths

- Multiplication – counting in 10s.
- Fractions: Finding half in shapes and number, finding quarter.
- Height and Length: comparing length, comparing height, comparing height and length, measure in length, adding in length and subtracting in length.
- Introduction to Time.

Science

- We will be looking at materials
- We will be name materials.
- We will be describing materials.

Art and DT

- Looking at sculpture artists.
- learning the art of origami.
- Making a hot air balloon out of papier-mâché.

History

- We will be finding out about the different ways that humans have tried to fly throughout history.
- We will identify the significant lives of the Wright brothers.
- We will compare old and modern flights.

Parent Overview – Y1 Hedgehogs Spring 2 – 2022 Up, Up and Away

Key Texts

Sulwe, Ollie and the wind and pigs might fly.

Computing

- Practice logging on to a computer using a username and password.
- Using a keyboard.
- Using a word document.

PE

- Fitness: Gym fit circuits.
- Games: Brilliant ball skills.

PSHE

- Around and about the school.
- Taking care of something.

Forest School/Music

- Folding skills
- Making fishing rods
- Seeds & growth – gardening
- Animal tracks

RE

Key Question: Why does Easter matter to Christians?