

Geography

The position and characteristics of British habitats. Map work, including Ordnance survey. Evergreen and deciduous forests and woodlands. The history of the British landscape. Rivers and mountains on maps.

Art/DT/Forest School

Leaf rubbing; leaf and tree sketching. Bug boxes. Sewing - woodland animal designs. British landscape painters.

Andy Goldsworthy art.

Science

Plants; their requirements. Seeds and dispersal. Pollination. Types of trees and their properties. Tree identification. British habitats.

Music

Samba drumming programme run by John Randall from Dorset Music Hub

PHSE

Rights and responsibilities

English

'The Lost Words' poetry; British flora and fauna

Complete the 'Skara Brae' persuasive text writing

Grammar and punctuation revision

Class reader: Assorted woodland animal stories
– Little Grey Rabbit, Brock the Badger etc.

P.E./Games

Swimming

Athletics

Running; jumping

Tennis

Computing

Using scratch,
a programming
tool

Maths

Coordinates

Translating Polygons

Formal written methods in all three operations \times \div $+$ $-$

Reasoning in division
and multiplication

Statistics

Calculating Area and Perimeter

RE

Understanding
Christianity:

People of God

Key question:

What is it like to follow God?

British Countryside

Badgers

Summer 2